CHAIN, CROWBAR AND NUNCHUKS

Can you imagine a motorcycle race where you can off their bikes with one or two hits? These weapons are worth hanging on to.

CATTLEPROD

This is probably the most powerful weapon. It can be used to knock out any opponent by knocking them off their bike. It's also a good idea to use it on the other side of the road to avoid any hassles.

OUT OF AFRICA!

Dear STC,

I am a 14 year old who comes from a small town called Kariba. I decided to write as I thought you'd be surprised to hear from someone who lives so far away!

Listen, Simbarashe, if we're talking distances here, I come from another planet!

FIGHTING FORCE

Dear STC,

I have an idea for a new game called 'Tournament Fighters'. Of course, it would star old blue face, along with Amy, Tails, Knuckles, Johnny, Porker and the Chantix characters. The object of the game would be to battle against baddies like Doctor Robotnik, Grimer and various Badniks.

Take note - could this be the next Sega release?

NO YOLK!

Dear STC,

My son Daniel found an unusual way to make Sonic, Tails & Robotnik models. The bodies were made by covering egg shells with felt. The arms and legs were made from pipecleaners and the faces were painted separately on paper and then stuck on to the bodies!

Daniel's handy-work is on display in the STC office and hasn't even been dropped on the floor

- yet!
